My Fashionista Packages & Prices

When you first get in touch, there will be a detailed discussion either on the phone or over coffee prior to your shopping trip. It will cover the style you'd like to achieve and the gaps in your wardrobe you need to fill. i.e. business outfits, casual wear, cocktail dresses, black tie events etc. We will discuss tips on what shapes, styles and colors would suit you best.

Total overhaul!

Approx 6 hours.

Price: £330.00

We start off with your wardrobe! Let's decide what stays and what goes.

Then I put together a list of the gaps in your wardrobe, your budget, your likes and dislikes, your favourite colours and I'll have a look at your shape.

Shopping: let's go! I will pick out all the clothes for you, gathering different sizes and options, so you need not leave the changing room. And you will have my honest opinion, ensuring everything you buy really does make you look and feel like a million dollars.

Coffee and lunch. A quick respite from the madness.

Accessorizing; shoes, jewellery, bits and bobs.

End of the day: we'll have a fashion show to demonstrate how your new purchases work together.

Wardrobe Witch

Approx 3 hours

Price: £160.00

I'll visit your home to examine your wardrobe, working out what you will keep, what might stay/go and what should definitely be taken to dress agencies or charity shops.

Then we will organise, edit and plan your outfits.

As we go we'll make notes that form the foundation of your shopping list so that you can go off and shop with a definitive list of items, colours and looks that you need to complete your wardrobe.

*Don't forget - if you still need me when it comes to hitting the high street, I'll happily come and help.(see packages & prices for details).

Panic stations

Approx 2 ½ hours.

Price £160.00

Black tie event? Cocktail party? Wedding?..... need to find a holiday or interview outfit... and fast? Panic setting in?

A quick whizz around the shops for those special occasion pieces and you'll be done! I will source the shops near you, arrive with a list of ideas and we will get it done in double quick time- in a lunch hour, a Saturday morning or during late night shopping. Whatever suits you...

The Tourist Trip

Price: £55.00 per hour

This package is ideal if you are new to London and would like to find chic and quirky boutiques along with the major high-end department stores.

Great if you are short of time and want to see all the best places in one go.

The Painless Pressie

Price: Approx £55 per hour

Forgotten a major birthday? Want to find a Gucci wallet or Hermes scarf for a loved one but have left it a little late?

After a quick consultation via phone, email or in person, I will hit the shops for you and bring back your gift beautifully packaged and presented.

No excuses now!

Remote Control

Price: £55 per hour

Too busy to shop at all? Rushed off your feet with kids, deadlines or simply cannot face it?

After a quick consultation on the phone or in person I'll go shopping for you, bringing back whatever items you need so that you needn't leave the house. I return whatever you don't like or doesn't fit, or exchange for different colours or sizes.

Painless!

Top up sessions

Price: £50.00 per hour

Need a top up? Need me to outline the key pieces that you are missing for the season? Or just find that one missing item or some shoes to update your look?

The Blushing bride

Prices on application depending on your required package.

Tailor made packages to suit the bride and her party from the engagement party through to the big day.

I will help you choose your dress and accessories, sedate your screaming bridesmaids, pacify your mother, or indeed your mother in law by taking her shopping for the big day, and even help you to choose and pack your honeymoon suitcases so that you need not despair when it all looks too much.

“For me, clothing and fashion have always been a joyful passion, never a tedious chore. Over the years I have spent many excited hours and happy afternoons in my favourite boutiques, on the high street and, on my more impetuous days, in wonderful designer shops picking up key items, mad dresses, scarves and handbags and boots with the sort of delight reserved for a kid in a candy shop. Teaming this with years of experience in the fashion industry, I have the privilege of spotting trends, knowing stylists secrets and turning ideas into hits with accessories, bags, belts”.
